

Changes to the Board of Directors of BLME Holdings plc

London 11 December 2020: Further to the disclosure of senior management changes made on 21 October 2020, BLME Holdings plc (“the Company”) announces the appointment of Andrew Ball, Chief Executive Officer to the Board of Directors of the Company with effect from 11 December 2020 and confirms that Giles Cunningham is no longer a director.

Adel Al Majed, Chairman of the Board of BLME Holdings plc said; “I welcome Andrew Ball to the Board. With over 15 years’ experience working with clients in the GCC, Andrew brings the experience needed to guide BLME through its next, exciting strategic chapter as we strive to become the UK’s leading provider of Sharia’a compliant wealth management solutions for GCC nationals. ”

– ENDS –

Emails to: shareholders@blme.com

Notes to editors

Andrew Ball joined BLME in 2015 and has been responsible for the Bank’s real estate finance, investments and private banking, working with clients based mainly in the GCC. Prior to this he held several senior positions at International Bank of Qatar, including Head of Retail Banking and Head of Strategy.

For more information about BLME visit www.blme.com